Chords

Low E is tuned down to D.

B = beat

h = harmonic

v = strum down

^ = strum up

I don't know the proper name for some of these strange chords, so I'll just tab the different parts.

Since the strumming pattern is the same for this area too, I left it out.

He drags his first few fingers back across the strings on the up strum; so if you have nails, it sounds better.

Strumming pattern is the same for all the chords.
